M C Alexander Muthalaly

*Alexander Muthalaly [Kunjunju], was born in 1910 as the eldest son of Mr. Zachariah Muthalaly,
Kallada Malayil Ithymala Puthen Bunglow
& Mrs. Saramma Mavelikkara cherukol Injakkal,*

Alexander Muthalaly hasd two younger brothers and five sisters.

Alexander Muthalaly studied in Thevelakkara primary school, and in Kollam Government: boys high school, near Anandavalleswaram, Kollam. After his schooling he studied Marine engineering in Kochi. Then he joined Indian Navy and continued there for several years. He married Annamma [Ammini] of Peedikayil house Mundakkayam, Kottayam Dist: After his marriage he worked as a Port-Officer in Nagpatnam, Chennai, and then he retired. After his employment career he stayed in Kollam, and took care of his four passenger boats. He had a fishing boat and a fishing boat workshop.

He was also a Government contractor.

Alexander Muthalaly, stayed in Kadavoor Malayil house near the Kashmiri Catholic Church.

He has seven children. Two sons and five daughters. Mrs. Annamma [Ammini] died in Aug 26, 1984. Alexander muthalaly died in May 5, 1986. Both are laid to rest in their family vault, in Kadeesa Syrian church which belongs to their family.

Among Kallada Malayil Muthalaly family members, Alexander Muthalaly was a very prominent figure in Kollam. He was one of the greatest humanitarians and was very active in his social and Church life. He was a teetotaler, which was unbelievable to many because of his prolonged life background in Indian Navy. He has initiated several business people who later became the top most. He has helped innumerable people to get jobs. For any service he has rendered he took nothing from the recipients in cash or kind. He has helped many beyond his capacity.

He was one of the most active persons of Malayil family. He remains as a good example in all respect, to his descendants and followers.

Alexander Muthalaly's eldest daughter Sajini Thamby states all these relevant information to add to their family history.
